Printer Rejects 'Macbird' Job

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (UPI) The program publisher for New York's off-Broadway theaters has refused to print a program for "Macbird!", the play which implies President Johnson plotted the assassination of President Kennedy, it was learned today.

Jay Rosenblatt, the publisher, said he had read the paperback edition of the play, which views the Dallas tragedy in the terms and language of Shakespeare's "Macbeth," and decided against promoting the play in any way.

The play was written by Barbara Garson and is scheduled to open at the Village Gate Theater Feb. 8, with previews beginning Jan. 19.
